PRESS RELEASE

Confident in the strong potential of the Australian and New Zealand markets, Crédit Agricole Asset Management (CAAM) group, which has more than €520 billion assets under management worldwide, announces the opening of a sales and representative office in Sydney, to be headed by Richard Borysiewicz...

Jean-Yves Colin, Executive Vice President of CAAM and responsible for the Asia-Pacific region, adds "We are very pleased to welcome Richard on board [...] CAAM's key asset management capabilities relevant for these two markets include global fixed income, absolute return, currency, funds of hedge funds, Asian equities and structured products."
